GENERAL INFORMATION FOR THE ENTRANCE EXAMS

Preparatory Course

The University of the Arts offers all applicants a two-day-long, fee-based intensive course in music theory and ear training, which will help you to prepare for the entrance exam at German music schools. See <http://www.hfk-bremen.de/intensivkurs-musiktheorie> for more information about registration deadline, dates, and fees.

In addition, there will be a special course in March or April of 2022 for all jazz-specific subjects (playing in combo, theory, and ear training). For updated information on this, please see our home page.

Locations and Times for the Entrance Exam

Entrance exams will be held at the Music Faculty, Dechanatstraße 13-15, 28195, in Bremen city center. Examinations for organ majors will be held in a variety of churches. You will receive precise information about the location in your invitation to take the exam and on the day of the examination itself.

Entrance exams for first-semester students will take place during the week of May 30 to June 4, 2022.

Coaching and Musical Accompaniment

The University of the Arts will arrange for musical accompaniment at the audition. Accompanists from outside of the University are not permitted.

Language Exam

Foreign applicants please note that you must present the following required language certificates when you register for classes in the winter semester of 2022/23:

- For the Bachelor and Master Performance programs: Goethe Certificate B1 from the Goethe Institute
- For the Bachelor and Master of Music Education programs, as well as for the Arp Schnitger Master of Historical Sacred Music: TestDAF3 from the Goethe Institute

Credit for Graded Examination Results

Graded exams in the subjects of music theory and ear training completed as part of a youth program at a music conservatory or at a previous conservatory can be credited for those areas of the exam. If you receive credit, then you will not be required to take the theory section of the entrance exam. In order to receive credit, please send the completed application form (Link) and the official transcript from the theory courses from your previous conservatory by May 15, 2022 to the Campus Office Music (campus-office-musik@hfk-bremen.de). You will receive a reply before the examination.

Please note that you may not apply for course credit during exam week.

BACHELOR OF MUSIC IN PERFORMANCE

Instrumental Majors and Voice

Requirements for Majors

Unless otherwise noted, individual instrumental auditions will last about ten minutes.

In some cases, skills in sight reading (or sight singing for voice students) may be tested. The following pieces are not compulsory but simply serve as examples of the degree of difficulty required.

Accordion: Two original, contemporary works and a stylistic transcription of a baroque or classical piece (e.g., Bach, Bach-Söhne, Frescobaldi, Scarlatti, Haydn, etc.)

Bassoon: Telemann, Sonatas in E minor, F minor; Danzi, Concerto in F major; Apostel, Sonatina, op. 19

Flute: Sonatas from the basso continuo period (e.g., Bach, Sonata in C major or E major); classical concertos (e.g., Haydn, Concerto in D major; Mozart, Concerto in G major or D major); any piece from the 20th or 21st century (e.g., Debussy, Syrinx; or Poulenc Sonata)

Voice: Prepare a program consisting of three arias (concerto and opera) and four lieder in different styles, including a piece from the 20th or 21st centuries. At least one of the audition pieces should be in German. The examination committee will select various works from your submitted program to perform at the exam.

Guitar: Renaissance / Baroque: Dowland, Lachrimae Pavane; Bach, some movements from the lute suites; classical: Sor, etudes op. 29; Romantic-Expressionism: Villa-Lobos, etudes; Modern: Bennett, Impromptus

Clarinet: Three complete works from different eras

Piano: The program must be thoroughly memorized and should contain the following works:

- a polyphonic baroque piece
- an etude by Chopin
- a complete sonata or a cycle of variations from the Viennese classical period
- a work dating from the late 19th century to the mid-20th century
- a work by a composer born in the 20th century

Double Bass: De Fesch, Sonata in D minor; Capuzzi, Concerto in D major; Angerer, Gloriatio

Oboe: Poulenc, Sonata for oboe and piano; Vivaldi, Concerto in C minor; Mozart, Oboe quartet KV 37

Horn: The program should be between fifteen and twenty minutes. The committee will choose pieces from this program. Movements or works must be completely prepared.

- two works or movements from different eras

- sight reading

Trumpet: The program should be between fifteen and twenty minutes. The committee will choose pieces from this program. Movements or works must be completely prepared.

- two works or movements from different eras
- sight reading

Trombone: The program should be between fifteen and twenty minutes. The committee will choose pieces from this program. Movements or works must be completely prepared.

- two works or movements from eras important to the instrument
- sight reading from an easier piece

Tympani/Percussion: Krüger-Schule, etude no. 45 for 4 Pauken; Knauer no. 7 (6/8) and an etude for snare drum of your own choice; roll: pp cresc. ff decresc. pp (tempo 1/4=60 over 5 bars);
Mallets: piece for 4 mallets (e.g. Schlüter, from the solo book for vibraphone), etude for xylophon with 2 mallets

Viola: one slower and one faster movement from a Bach cello suite; one Hoffmeister etude (fast) or first movement from a classical concerto with cadenza; one slow, Romantic movement; one piece or movement by Hindemith

Violin: total length of the program: 30 min.; two contrasting movements from a Baroque solo piece; first movement from a classical concerto (with cadenza); a modern piece written after 1950; one piece of your choice

Cello: Bach, solo suites 1-3; two contrasting movements from one of the three suites; Lalo, cello concerto or Saint-Saëns, cello concerto no. 1 (A minor), either the first or third movement; Hindemith solo sonata, op. 25 (entirety)

Requirements for Instrumental/Voice Minor

Instrumental/voice minors will also be tested by a committee of experts. If it has not already been done by the time you register for the entrance exam, please submit your selection of prepared works in writing to the committee. Knowledge will be tested through the performance of easier pieces in various styles from different eras.

- Accordion majors may select a melodic instrument, tympani/percussion, or voice as a minor.
- Guitar majors may select piano, a melodic instrument, or tympani/percussion as a minor.
- For string or brass orchestral instrument, tympani/percussion, and voice majors, your minor is piano.
- For piano majors, piano accompaniment is your minor; you will not be tested for this during the entrance exam.

Requirements for Music Theory and Ear Training

As part of an approximately 60-minute-long written exam, you will be required to demonstrate knowledge of the following:

- Notating pitch and rhythm
- Defining intervals, keys, chords
- Fundamentals of harmonics
- Defining intervals, scale steps, cadences, chords, and chord progression
- Rhythm dictation
- One- and two-part music dictation

Early Music (Instrumental Major, Voice)

Requirements for the Major

Instrumental/voice majors are required to perform several works from eras relevant to the subject (approximately 20 minutes long). The following pieces are not obligatory but are simply examples to indicate the degree of difficulty required for the major. In some cases, sight reading or sight singing (voice majors) may be tested.

Baroque Bassoon: Boismortier, Sonata in G major, op. 40, no. 2 (adagio/gavotte); Galliard, Sonata 1 in A minor (cantabile/hornpipe/vivace), or Sonata 5 in D minor (adagio/allegro e spiritoso/alla ciciliana)

Baroque Oboe: two movements (slow/fast) from a sonata by Telemann or Händel, and two movements (slow/fast) from one of the French suites, e.g., by Couperin or Hotteterre

Baroque Trombone: a diminution by Bassano, e.g., Anchor che col partire, Liquide perle amor; a motet for solo voice with basso continuo, e.g., by Ludovico da Viadana from Centi Concerti Ecclesiastici; a trombone part from one of the 14 cantatas with trombone by J.S. Bach

Baroque Viola: For requirements, please contact:

Mechthild Karkow: mkarkow@hfk-bremen.de

Baroque Violin: e.g., a canzone by Frescobaldi or similar; a sonatina by Telemann or an easy Baroque sonata of your own choice; sight-reading a violin part from a 17th-century ensemble piece

Baroque Violoncello:

- One 17th-century piece (e.g., Ricercari by D. Gabrielli)
- Three parts of your own choice from the first three suites by J.S. Bach
- One sonata from the early to mid-18th century (e.g., Vivaldi, Geminiani) and one from the late 18th century (e.g., Boccherini, Haydn, Duport)

Recorder: three works in different styles from the period between 1550 and 1750, including a solo piece for recorder, one piece for soprano recorder, e.g., an early Baroque Italian sonata/canzona (with basso continuo), a solo fantasy by Telemann, a Baroque sonata or suite

Harpsichord: three works in different styles from the 16th to the 18th century, including one from the 18th century, e.g., Prelude and Fuge from the Well-Tempered Klavier or several suite sets by J.S. Bach; play a lightly figured bass line, to be prepared shortly beforehand

Voice: four pieces of different characters from the period between 1550 to 1750, e.g., a lute song (English/Italian), a sacred concerto (German/Latin/Italian) or a song for voice and continuo; a Baroque aria (e.g., Handel) and a Romantic Lied

Historical Harp: three works of different characters from the period before 1750, e.g., three- or four-part madrigals/chansons, dances (saltarello, estampie, Baroque dance movement); accompaniment for a

song for lute or for voice and continuo

Lute:

Renaissance Lute: Dowland, Fantasy; da Milano, Fantasie; Dalza, dance sequence

Baroque Lute: Gaultier, Tombeau de Mezangeau; Kellner, Fantasie; Weiss, Suite

Baroque Trumpet: 1. a sonata by Girolamo Fantini; 2. Suite in D by G. F. Handel or Sonata in D (G1) by G. Torelli or Suite in D by Henry Purcell or Sonata in D by Corelli; 3. one work of your own choice

Organ (Early Music): a longer piece with pedalwork from the North German School, e.g., Buxtehude, Lübeck; a piece mainly for two manuals from the 16th or 17th century, e.g., Sweelinck School, Froberger, or similar; sight reading

Transverse Flute: three works of different characters from the Baroque era, including a piece for solo transverse flute, e.g., a Telemann solo fantasie for transverse flute, a German Baroque sonata (e.g., Handel), a French suite (e.g., Hotteterre)

Viola da Gamba: a sample variation by D. Ortiz; a sonata by Telemann; a compilation of easy dance movements from a Marais suite

Zink (Cornetto): an early Baroque solo concerto, e.g., Frescobaldi, La Bernadina, G. P. Cima, Sonata in D minor

Natural Horn: two works from different eras up to the 19th century, e.g.:

Baroque

- Christoph Förster – Concerto ex Dis [i.e., in E flat], no. 1, for horn, two violins, viola, and basso continuo, Lund manuscript no. 5 (Saml. Wenster J:1–17)
- Telemann, Horn concerto

Classical

- Mozart, Horn Concerti
- Haydn, Horn Concerto no. 1 in D, Hob. VIId:3 (1762)

Early Romantic

- Ferdinand Ries, horn sonata
- Carl Maria von Weber
- Horn concertino, op. 45

Instrumental Minor

For Early Music majors, the minor is, as a rule, harpsichord. Be prepared to play easier pieces in different styles from various eras. For harpsichord majors, the minor is basso continuo, which requires candidates to perform one prepared and one unprepared figured basso continuo.

Requirements for Music Theory and Ear Training

As part of an approximately sixty-minute-long written exam, you will be tested on your knowledge in general music theory and ear training as follows:

- Notating pitch and rhythm
- Defining intervals, keys, and chords
- Fundamentals of harmonics
- Defining intervals, scales (major/minor and church mode), scale steps, cadences, chords, and chord progressions
- Rhythm dictation
- One- and two-part musical dictation

Jazz

Requirements for Jazz Instrumental/Voice Major

Besides technical competence in performing your program (around 20 minutes in length), artistic abilities in shaping the music and improvisation will be primarily evaluated.

Trumpet, Saxophone, Trombone, Flute, Piano, Guitar, Double Bass, Vibraphone:

- Perform three standards with improvisation (e.g., blues, Latin, ballad) either solo or with piano/band accompaniment (as a rule) or with playback (Aebersold, Ricker, Mintzer, etc.)
- One piece from the classical repertoire (etude, solo piece, or transcription)
- Sight reading for combo or big band

Drums/Percussion:

- Binary and ternary idiomatic jazz grooves and rhythms
- Three standards, including a solo, in a band performance
- One classical piece (etude [e.g., Wilcoxon], solo piece, or transcription of a master solo, e.g., Blakey, Roach, Williams, E. Jones, J. de Johnette)
- Sight-read a combo or big band part

Jazz Voice:

- Perform three pieces in the following styles: jazz standards, Latin, binary jazz in affine style
- Include improvisation in each piece
- Sight singing from a lead sheet

Instrumental Minor (Jazz Specific)

Candidates are required to perform several easier pieces from the jazz repertoire.

- For piano majors, the jazz-specific minor can be trumpet, saxophone, trombone, flute, voice, double bass, or drums.
- For guitar, trumpet, saxophone, trombone, flute, voice, double bass, and vibraphone majors, the jazz-specific minor is piano.

Instrumental/Voice Minor (Classical)

For jazz majors, candidates may minor in the corresponding classical instrument; for voice majors, the minor is voice training. Candidates must show basic knowledge in their classical instrumental/vocal minor by performing several easier pieces in different styles from different eras, if possible.

Requirements for Music Theory and Ear Training

- As part of an approximately sixty-minute-long written exam, candidates will be required to show knowledge of the following:
- Recognition of styles (CD samples in different styles)
- Pitch and rhythm notation
- Elementary knowledge of jazz harmonics and cadences, e.g., IV.V-I, V-V-I, II-V-I in major and minor (5-part)

- Listen to and define intervals, scales, scale steps, chords, and chord progressions
- Rhythm dictation (from a CD fragment)
- One- and two-part music dictation (from a CD fragment)
- Develop a given melody

Composition

Requirements for Composition Majors

Before the aptitude test, candidates will be required to submit their own compositions ahead of time. Scores for three of your own compositions must be submitted via e-mail no later than two weeks before the exam date (campus-office-musik@hfk-bremen.de).

Oral practical exam (about 30 minutes):

- Colloquium regarding the scores submitted

Written exam (2 hours):

- Brief analysis of a given score
- Attributing given scores to their correct eras or to individual composers
- Answering specific questions about instrumentation

Requirements for Instrumental Minor

For composition majors, the minor is piano. Candidates must perform two pieces of medium difficulty in different styles from different eras.

Requirements for Music Theory and Ear Training

As part of a sixty-minute-long written exam, candidates must demonstrate knowledge of the following:

- Pitch and rhythm notation
- Defining intervals, keys, and chords
- Fundamentals of harmonics
- Defining intervals, scale steps, cadences, chords, and chord progressions
- Rhythm dictation
- One- and two-part music dictation

BACHELOR OF MUSIC IN MUSIC EDUCATION

Music Education Instrumental/Vocal (IGP)

Requirements for the Music Education Major

Unless otherwise noted, auditions will be about ten minutes long.

In individual cases, sight-reading skills (or sight-singing, for voice majors) will be tested. The following works are not obligatory but simply examples that indicate the required degree of difficulty.

Accordion: Two original, contemporary works and one stylistically correct transcription of a Baroque or classical piece (e.g., Bach or sons, Frescobaldi, Scarlatti, Haydn, etc.). Excerpts, if necessary, are permissible.

Recorder: Frescobaldi, canzones; Castello, sonatas; Fontana sonatas; Telemann, sonata or solo fantasy (or a comparable work by Bach); Quantz, capriccio; Hirose, Meditation or comparable avant-garde piece

Bassoon: Boismortier, Sonatas, op. 26; Weissenborn, Studies, vol. 2; Hindemith, sonata, 1938

Flute: Sonata from the basso continuo era (e.g., Telemann, 12 Methodical Sonatas); classical sonata (e.g., Mozart, 6 Sonatas); one piece from the 20th or 21st centuries (e.g., from Hindemith, 8 Pieces)

Voice: Perform one aria from a concerto and an opera each; three songs by different composers, including at least one in German

Guitar: Renaissance/Baroque: Dowland, "My Lady Hunsdon's Puffe"; de Visee, a few movements from the Suites for Guitar; classical: Sor, Etudes, op. 6; Romantic Expressionism: Carlevaro: Preludios; modern: Smith-Brindle, Sonata No. 4 (La Breve)

Clarinet: three complete works from different eras

Piano: A program of works from the following areas must be submitted for consideration:

- a polyphonic Baroque piece
- a complete classical sonata
- an etude by Chopin
- a piece by a composer born in the 20th century
- Total length: at least 35 minutes. The program must be played from memory.

Double Bass: Marcello, sonatas; Dragonetti, 3 Walzes; Montag, original compositions by Hungarian masters

Oboe: Handel, Concerto in g minor; Hindemith, Sonata for oboe and piano; Haydn, Concerto in C major

French Horn: Program length: 15-20 minutes. The committee will make the selections. Movements or pieces must be completely prepared:

- Two works or movements from different eras
- Sight reading

Trumpet: Program length: 15-20 minutes. The committee will make the selections. Movements or pieces must be completely prepared:

- Two works or movements from different eras
- Sight reading

Trombone: Program length: 15-20 minutes. The committee will make the selections. Movements or pieces must be completely prepared:

- Two works or movements from eras relevant to the instrument
- Sight reading an easier piece

Tympani/Percussion: Hochrainer, Etudes for Tympani, no. 32; Knauer-Besing, "Schule für Kleine Trommel," exercise 19; mallets: a piece of your own choice using four mallets (e.g., Schlüter, Solo Book for Vibraphone, vol. 2) and a xylophone etude of your own choice using two mallets

Viola: one slower and one faster movement from a Bach cello suite; one Hoffmeister etude (fast) or the first movement of a classical concerto with cadenza; one slower, Romantic movement; one piece/movement by Hindemith

Violin: Prepare a program totaling no more than thirty minutes. Two contrasting movements from a solo Baroque work; the first movement of a classical concerto (with cadenza); one modern piece written after 1950; one work of your choice.

Cello: Sammartini, Sonata in G major; Eccles, Sonata in g minor; Schumann, Fantasy; Martinu, Variations on a Slovakian Theme

Early Music Instruments

Baroque Recorder: Boismortier, Sonata in G major, op. 40, no. 2 (adagio/gavotte); Galliard, Sonata I in a minor (cantabile/hornpipe/vivace) or Sonata V in d minor (adagio/allegro e spiritoso/alla ciciliana)

Baroque Oboe: two movements (slow/fast) from a sonata by Telemann or Handel, and two movements (slow/fast) from one of the French suites, e.g., by Couperin or Hotteterre

Baroque Trombone: a diminution by Bassano, e.g., "Anchor che col partire" or "Liquide perle amor"; one motet for solo voices with basso continuo, e.g., by Ludovico da Viadana from "Centi Concerti Ecclesiastici"; one trombone part from one of the 14 cantatas with trombone by J.S. Bach

Baroque Viola: For requirements, please contact:

Mechthild Karkow: mkarkow@hfk-bremen.de

Baroque Violin: e.g., a canzone by Frescobaldi or similar, a sonatina by Telemann, or an easy Baroque sonata of your own choice; sight reading a violin part from a piece of 17th-century ensemble music

Baroque Violincello:

- One work from the 17th century (e.g., Ricercari by D. Gabrielli)
- Three parts of your own choice from the first three suites by J. S. Bach
- One sonata from the early to mid-18th century (e.g., Vivaldi, Geminiani) and one from the late 18th century (e.g., Boccherini, Haydn, Duport)

Recorder: three works in different styles from the period between 1550 and 1750, including a piece for solo recorder and one for soprano recorder, e.g., an early Baroque Italian sonata/canzona (with basso continuo); one solo fantasy by Telemann; one Baroque sonata or suite

Harpsichord: three works in different styles from the 16th to 18th century, including one from the 18th century, e.g., Prelude and Fugue from the Well-Tempered Clavier or several movements from a suite by J. S. Bach; play a lightly figured bass line prepared shortly beforehand

Voice: four works of different characters from the period between 1550 and 1750, e.g., a lute song (English/Italian), one sacred music concerto (German/Latin/Italian) or one song for voice and continuo, one Baroque aria (e.g., Handel), and one of the Romantic Lieder.

Historical Harp: three works of different characters from the period before 1750, e.g., three- or four-part madrigals/chansons, dances (saltarello, estampie, Baroque dance movement), accompaniment for a lute or song for voice and continuo

Lute:

Renaissance Lute: Dowland, Fantasy; da Milano, Fantasie; Dalza, Dances

Baroque Lute: Gaultier, Tombeau de Mezangeau; Kellner, Fantasie; Weiss, Suite

Natural Trumpet: 1. sonata by Girolamo Fantini; 2. Suite in D major by G. F. Handel or Sonata in D (G1) by G. Torelli, or Suite in D by Henry Purcell or Sonata in D by Corelli; 3. One piece of your own choice

Organ (Early Music): one of the longer works from the North German School, played with pedal, e.g., Buxtehude, Lübeck; one 16th or 17th-century work played mainly with two manuals, e.g., Sweelink School, Froberger or similar; sight reading

Transverse Flute: three works of different characters from the Baroque era, including a piece for solo transverse flute, e.g., a Telemann Fantasie for solo transverse flute, one German Baroque sonata (e.g., Handel), one French suite (e.g., Hotteterre)

Viola da Gamba: a sample variation by D. Ortiz, one Telemann sonata, a medley of easy dance suite sets by Marais

Zink (Cornetto): one solo early Baroque concerto, e.g., Frescobaldi, La Bernadina, G. P. Cima, Sonata in d minor

Natural Horn: two works from different eras up to the 19th century, for example:

Baroque

- Christoph Förster - Concerto ex Dis [i.e., in E-flat], no. 1 for horn, two violins, viola, and basso continuo, Lund manuscript no. 5 (Saml. Wenster J:1–17)
- Telemann Horn concerto

Classical

- Mozart, Horn concerti
- Haydn, Horn concerto no. 1 in D, Hob. VIId:3 (1762)

Early Romantic

- Ferdinand Ries, Horn sonata
- Carl Maria von Weber, Horn concertino, op. 45

Requirements for the Instrumental/Voice Minor

Instrumental/voice minors will also be tested by a committee of experts. If it has not already been done by the time you register for the entrance exam, please submit your selection of prepared works in writing to the committee. Knowledge will be tested through the performance of two to three prepared pieces in different styles from different eras.

- Accordion majors may select melodic instrument, tympani/percussion, or voice as a minor.
- Guitar majors may select piano, another instrument, or tympani/percussion as a minor.
- For orchestral string or brass instrument majors, piano is the minor.
- For early music string or brass instrument majors, harpsichord is the minor.
- Recorder majors may select either piano or harpsichord as a minor.
- For piano majors, accompaniment is the minor; this will not be tested in the entrance exam.

Requirements for Music Theory and Ear Training

As part of an approximately sixty-minute-long written exam, candidates will be required to show knowledge of the following:

- Pitch and rhythm notation
- Defining intervals, keys, and chords
- Fundamentals of harmonics
- Defining intervals, scale steps, cadences, chords, and chord progressions
- Rhythm dictation
- One- and two-part music dictation

Requirements in Music Education Practical

This section of the examination is obligatory for everyone applying to the Bachelor of Music, the program in Instrumental and Voice Education, (IGP), or in Jazz. Instructors will administer the group exam, which will last no longer than sixty minutes maximum. The required content will be performed as ad hoc tasks using forms of expression such as voice, language, physical percussion, movement, and/or playing an instrument. Tasks may be chosen from the following areas:

- Singing and speaking (rhythms/melodies/vocal improvisation)
- Playing percussion or melodic instruments (rhythms/melodies/improvisation)
- Group discussion on topics relevant to the program

Jazz

Jazz Instrumental/Voice Major

Besides technical competence in performing your program (around 20 minutes in length), evaluations will primarily concentrate upon your artistic abilities in shaping the music and improvisation.

Trumpet, Saxophone, Trombone, Flute, Piano, Guitar, Double Bass, Vibraphone:

- Perform three standards with improvisation (e.g., blues, Latin, ballad) solo, or with piano/band accompaniment or playback (Aebersold, Ricker, Mintzer, etc.)
- One classical piece (etude, solo piece, or transcription)
- Sight reading for combo or big band

Drums/Percussion:

- Binary and ternary idiomatic jazz grooves and rhythms
- Three standards, including a solo, in a band performance
- One classical piece (etude, solo piece, or transcription)
- Sight reading for combo or big band

Jazz Vocal:

- Perform three pieces in the following styles: jazz standards, Latin, binary jazz in affine style; each should include an improvisation
- Sight singing from a lead sheet

Instrumental Minor (Jazz-Specific)

Perform several easier pieces from the jazz repertoire.

- For piano majors, the jazz-specific minor can be trumpet, saxophone, trombone, flute, voice, double bass, or drums.
- For guitar, trumpet, saxophone, trombone, flute, voice, double bass, drums and vibraphone majors, the jazz-specific minor is piano.

Instrumental/Voice Minor (Classical)

For jazz majors, the classical minor is the corresponding classical instrument; for voice majors, it is voice training. For the classical instrument/voice minor, the following basic knowledge must be demonstrated:

- Perform two compositions of medium difficulty (Tomasi, Bossa, Lacour vol. 2 etude)

Music Theory and Ear Training

As part of an approximately 60-minute-long written exam, candidates will be required to demonstrate knowledge of the following:

- Define styles (using samples from CDs in various styles)
- Pitch and rhythm notation
- Elementary knowledge of jazz harmonics and cadences, e.g. (IV.V-I, V-V-I, II-V-I) in major and minor (5-part)
- Listen to and define intervals, scales, keys, chords, and chord progressions

- Rhythm dictation (using a CD excerpt)
- One- and two-part music dictation (using a CD excerpt)
- Develop a given melody

Requirements in Music Education Practical

This section of the examination is obligatory for everyone applying to the Bachelor of Music, the program in Instrumental and Voice Education, (IGP), or in Jazz. Instructors will administer the group exam, which will last no longer than sixty minutes. The required content will be performed as ad hoc tasks using forms of expression such as voice, language, physical percussion, movement, and/or playing an instrument.

Tasks may be chosen from the following areas:

- Singing and speaking (rhythms/melodies/vocal improvisation)
- Playing percussion or melodic instruments (rhythms/melodies/improvisation)
- Group discussion on topics relevant to the program

Elementary Music Education (EMP)

Elementary Music Education Major

1. Group exam (60 to 90 minutes); this exam will be administered by instructors
 - Playing large and small percussion instruments (rhythms/melodies/improvisation)
 - Singing and speaking (rhythms/melodies/vocal improvisation)
 - Movement and dance (physical coordination and improvisation)
2. Leading a group of co-applicants (max. 10 minutes per person)
Prepare to lead a group of adult students or co-applicants (content may be freely selected from the fields of music, movement, voice/speech, and improvisation)
3. Individual exam
 - Practical music section: a briefly prepared, short solo performance using voice, speech, movement, and/or playing an instrument (length: around three minutes). Instrument or voice majors may use their instrument or voice but are not obligated to do so.
 - Colloquium with the committee (including reflection upon the EMP program and why you are motivated to join it)

We recommend emailing Prof. Dr. Barbara Stiller (b.stiller@hfk-bremen.de) in time to prepare properly. Classroom observation beforehand is also possible by arrangement.

Instrumental/Voice Second Major

Perform (length: about 15 minutes) several works (individual movements are permitted) in different styles from different eras (accordion, recorder, fagott, flute, guitar, clarinet, piano, double bass, oboe, tympani/percussion, viola, violin, or cello, as well as all early music instruments/voice).

Besides technical skills, the evaluation will focus on artistry. In individual cases, sight reading skills may be tested. The following pieces should not be considered obligatory but simply serve as examples of the degree of difficulty required.

Accordion: one contemporary work, optionally another original work or a stylistically correct transcription

Recorder: Van Eyck, "Fluyten Lusthof"; Frescobaldi, Canzones; one Baroque solo sonata (e.g., Loeillet or Handel); Linde, "Neuzeitliche Übungsstücke," Caprices, "Music for a Bird"

Fagott: Galliard, sonatas; Weissenborn, Studies, vol. 1; Bruns, from 5 Pieces, op. 40

Flute: Sonata from the basso continuo era (e.g., Handel, Hallenser Sonatas); slow movement from a classical sonata (e.g., Mozart, 6 Sonatas); one 20th-century work (e.g., Hindemith, 8 Pieces for Solo Flute)

Voice: Perform one aria from a concerto and one from an opera; three songs by different composers, including at least one piece in German

Guitar: Renaissance/Baroque: Milan, Pavanas; Bach, Prelude from the Suite no. 1 for cello, BWV 1007; classical: Sor, Etudes, op. 35, beginning at no. 13; Romantic Expressionism: Tarrega, Lágrima; modern: Brouwer, Etudes Simples, beginning at no. 11

Clarinet: three works from different eras

Piano: Bach, Invention in F major; Haydn, Sonata in C major, Hob XVI 10; Bartók, from Mikrokosmos 4

Double Bass: Simandl, 30 Etudes; Daré, Menuett; Müllich, "Fünf Minuten"

Oboe: Loeillet, Sonata in C major; Britten, Metamorphoses I Pan; Donizetti, Sonata, second movement

French Horn: Program length: 15-20 minutes. The committee will choose from the pieces you have prepared. Movements or works must be completely prepared:

- Two works or movements from different eras
- Sight reading

Trumpet: Program length: 15-20 minutes. The committee will choose from the pieces you have prepared. Movements or works must be completely prepared:

- Two works or movements from different eras
- Sight reading

Trombone: Program length: 15-20 minutes. The committee will choose from the pieces you have prepared. Movements or works must be completely prepared:

- Two works or movements from eras relevant to the instrument
- Sight reading an easier piece

Organ: Buxtehude, Prelude and fuge in G major; Bach, Canzona in d minor, BWV 588; Mendelssohn-Bartholdy, Prelude and fuge in G major

Tympani/Percussion: Knauer-Besing, "Schule für Kleine Trommel," exercises 8 to 12

Viola: Telemann, Concerto in G major; Giordani, Sonata in B-flat major; Kreutzer, Etude 8 or 10

Violin: Bach, Concerto in a minor; Mozart, one sonata; Hindemith, Sonata in E or B-flat

Cello: Sammartini, Sonata in G major; Eccles, Sonata in g minor; Schumann, Fantasiestücke; Martinu, Variations on a Slovakian Theme

Early Music Instruments

Baroque Faggott: Boismortier, Sonata in G major, op. 40, no. 2 (adagio/gavotte); Galliard, Sonata I in a minor (cantabile/hornpipe/vivace) or Sonata 5 in d minor (adagio/allegro e spiritoso/alla Ciciliana)

Baroque Oboe: two movements (slow/fast) from one sonata by Telemann or Handel, and two movements (slow/fast) from a French suite, e.g., by Couperin or Hotteterre

Baroque Trombone: a diminution by Bassano, e.g., "Anchor che col partire," "Liquide perle amor"; a motet for solo voice with basso continuo, e.g., by Ludovico da Viadana from "Centi Concerti Ecclesiastici"; one trombone part from one of the 14 cantatas for trombone by J. S. Bach

Baroque Viola: Please contact: Mechthild Karkow: mkarkow@hfk-bremen.de

Baroque Violin: e.g., a canzone by Frescobaldi or similar, a sonatina by Telemann, or an easier Baroque sonata of your own choice; sight read a violin part from a 17th-century ensemble piece

Baroque Violincello:

- One 17th-century work (e.g., Ricercari by D. Gabrielli)
- Three sections of your own choice from the first three suites by J. S. Bach
- One sonata from the early to mid-18th century (e.g., Vivaldi, Geminiani) and one from the late 18th century (e.g., Boccherini, Haydn, Duport)

Recorder: three works in different styles from the period between 1550 to 1750, including a work for solo soprano recorder, e.g., an early Italian Baroque sonata/canzona (with basso continuo); a solo fantasy by Telemann; a Baroque sonata or suite

Harpsichord: three works in different styles dating from the 16th to the 18th century, including one from the 18th century, e.g., Prelude and fugue from the Well-Tempered Klavier or several suite sets by J.S. Bach; you must also play a lightly figured bass line

Voice: four works of different characters from the period between 1550 and 1750, e.g., a lute song (English/Italian), one sacred music concerto (German/Latin/Italian) or one song for voice and continuo, one Baroque aria (e.g., Handel), and one of the Romantic Lieder

Historical Harp: three works of different characters from the period before 1750, e.g., three- or four-part madrigals/chansons, dances (saltarello, estampie, Baroque dance movement); accompaniment for a song for lute or for voice and continuo

Lute:

Renaissance Lute: Dowland, Fantasy; da Milano, Fantasie; Dalza, Dances

Baroque Lute: Gaultier, Tombeau de Mezangeau; Kellner, Fantasie; Weiss, Suite

Natural Trumpet: 1. a sonata by Girolamo Fantini; 2. Suite in D major by G. F. Handel or Sonata in D (G1) by G. Torelli, or Suite in D by Henry Purcell or Sonata in D by Corelli; 3. One piece of your own choice

Organ (Early Music): one of the longer works from the North German School, played with pedal, e.g., Buxtehude, Lübeck; one 16th or 17th-century work played mainly with two manuals, e.g., Sweelink School, Froberger or similar; sight reading

Transverse Flute: three works of different characters from the Baroque era, including a piece for solo transverse flute, e.g., a Telemann solo fantasie for transverse flute, a German Baroque sonata (e.g., Handel), a French suite (e.g., Hotteterre)

Viola da Gamba: a sample variation by D. Ortiz; a sonata by Telemann; a medly of easy dance movements from a Marais suite

Zink (Cornetto): one early Baroque solo concerto, e.g., Frescobaldi, La Bernadina, G. P. Cima, Sonata in d minor

Natural Horn: two works from different eras up to the 19th century, for example:

Baroque

- Christoph Förster - Concerto ex Dis [i.e., in E-flat], no. 1 for horn, two violins, viola, and basso continuo, Lund manuscript no. 5 (Saml. Wenster J:1–17)
- Telemann Horn concerto

Classical

- Mozart, Horn concerti
- Haydn, Horn concerto no. 1 in D, Hob. VIId:3 (1762)

Early Romantic

- Ferdinand Ries, Horn sonata
- Carl Maria von Weber, Horn concertino, op. 45

Instrumental/Voice Minor

If it has not already been done by the time you register for the entrance exam, please submit your selection of prepared works in writing to the committee. Knowledge will be tested through the performance easier pieces in different styles from different eras.

- Accordion majors may select melodic instrument, tympani/percussion, or voice as a minor.
- Guitar majors may select piano, another instrument, or tympani/percussion as a minor (upon special request, you may be permitted to undertake a piano minor).
- For orchestral string or brass instrument, tympani/percussion, and voice majors, piano is the minor.
- For early music string or brass instrument majors, harpsichord is the minor.
- Recorder majors may select either piano or harpsichord as a minor.
- For piano majors, accompaniment is the minor; this will not be tested in the entrance exam.

Music Theory and Ear Training

As part of a 60-minute-long written exam, candidates must demonstrate knowledge of the following:

- Pitch and rhythm notation
- Defining intervals, keys, and chords
- Fundamentals of harmonics
- Defining intervals, scale steps, cadences, chords, and chord progressions
- Rhythm dictation
- One- and two-part music dictation

TRANSFERRING INTO THE BACHELOR OF MUSIC PROGRAM

Applicants must take the entrance exam for the Bachelor of Music program. Formats and content for all of the majors can be found under the corresponding sections in this guide to the entrance exam. For candidates transferring from the Bachelor of Music in Performance program to the Bachelor of Music in Music Education, there will be a Music Education Examination along with the major examination.

The Music Education Exam consists of the following sections:

1. Deal with a short text relevant to music education (10 minutes)

Candidates should demonstrate in a presentation that they can make a plausible, practical connection to relevant aspects of instructions based on a text excerpt.

Preparation time: 15 minutes

2. Analyze a filmed instruction sequence (10 minutes)

Candidates should demonstrate in conversation that they can describe and reflect upon the various methodical, didactic levels of instrumental or voice instruction, and relate them to each other.

Preparation time: 15 minutes

3. Colloquium (5 minutes)

Candidates must discuss their motivation for studying Music Education.

MASTER OF MUSIC IN PERFORMANCE

Instrumental

Audition for Instrumental Majors:

In general: The following pieces are not obligatory but are simply examples to indicate the degree of difficulty required for the major.

Sight-reading skills may also be tested. A brief colloquium with the committee is part of the examination.

For Flute, Fagott, Oboe, Double Bass, Viola, Violin, Cello

Please prepare a challenging program of at least sixty minutes in length. The program must contain works from in at least three different styles, from three different eras, including one classical and one Romantic solo concerto (at least two complete movements with cadenza). For viola, alternative concertos could be by Forsyth, Bowen, Martinu, Walton, Hindemith, or Schwanendreher, plus one work from the period after 1950.

Accordion

Three works in three different styles from at least two different eras are required.

Clarinet

Three complete works from different eras

Piano

The program must be memorized and should contain the following pieces:

- One polyphonic Baroque work
- Two virtuoso etudes: 1. One etude by Chopin
 2. One etude of your choice
- One complete sonata or a cycle of variations from the Viennese classical period
- One work from the period between the late 19th century up to the mid-20th century
- One work by a composer born in the 20th century

French Horn, Trumpet, and Trombone:

Your program should be between 30 and 45 minutes long. The committee will select the pieces, which must be completely prepared:

- Three works from different eras

Tympani/Percussion

Please prepare a challenging program at least forty minutes long. The program must contain the following:

- Mallets: one piece of your own choice featuring four mallets
- Setup: one piece of your own choice
- Tympani: Krüger 45
- Orchestral pieces for tympani, xylophone, glockenspiel, and snare

Voice

Audition (length: approx. 10 minutes) Please prepare a challenging program at least sixty minutes long. The program must contain the following:

- Works from three different eras, including one European or American piece composed after 1950
- Three arias (opera and oratorio), one recitative, and three piano lieder. For the operatic arias, a dramatic presentation is expected
- An entire song cycle or a complete opera or oratorio part
- Works in German, French, and English

The examination will include a brief discussion with the committee.

Composition and Electroacoustic Composition

The same formal requirements apply to the Composition and Electroacoustic Composition programs. Distinctions will be made based on the content of the portfolio submitted.

Present a portfolio of your own compositions: The portfolio should contain a list of works and at least three of your own compositions in the form of sheet music and/or recordings (especially for electroacoustic music). Further documentation (e.g., intermedia work, software projects) may be added. The portfolio must be submitted via email to campus-office-musik@hfk-bremen.de at least two weeks before the examination.

Exam colloquium (length: approx. 30 minutes): A discussion of the works submitted and questions regarding composition.

MASTER OF MUSIC EARLY MUSIC

Instrumental

Audition (length: approx. 20 minutes)

You must prepare a challenging program at least sixty minutes long. The following pieces should be considered examples. They may be replaced with comparable works in the same style and of the same degree of difficulty. Sight-reading skills may be tested. The exam also encompasses a brief discussion with the committee.
